Complete Change of Photoplays Today-Three Big Features-Last Chance to See the Five Sullys in "The Information Bureau."

A complete change of photoplays will be seen at this theatre today and three big two reel features will be shown including the third chapter of The Diamond from the Sky. This The Diamond from the Sky. This wonderful serial grows more interesting each week and the chapter shown today is one of the most thrilling instalments of the series, the title of this third chapter being called The Silent Witness. In it Irving Cummings does many daring feats, speeding at 50 miles an hour and just missing a passenger train coming in another direction, and later going over a high cilff into the water below in a high cliff into the water below in this same car. Lottle Pickford is seen again this week and her acting is a delight to everyone. Ten thousand dollars in cash will be paid to the person who submits the best sugges-tion for a seculate. person who submits the best sugges-tion for a sequel to The Diamond from the Sky. Follow the picture, closely, at this theatre. Another feature to-day that will especially appeal to the young folks is The Conversion of Frosty Blake, a two reel Broncho western drama with the popular cowboy actor, William S. Hart. Everyone remembers the excellent work done by Mr. Hart in the Night Stage and no one will want to miss this feature with him today. The third feature is one that will appeal to both young and old and it is called Fatty's Plucky Pup, a two reel Keystone comedy with this funny fat fellow keeping everyone in roars for one solid half hour. This is one of the latest Keystone special comedies and it is considered to be one of the best they ever turned out.
The Five Sullys will be seen for the last time today in their novel comedy acrobatic act, coming here direct from the New York Hippodrome. Come here and you will keep cool. COLONIAL THEATRE.

In this superb offering of the Vita-graph company entitled A Child of the North, a two reel feature, the Colo-nial presents to its patrons a story that is altogether unique, both in con-ception and execution. It tells of a half-breed girl of the north, who lives with her dissipated father in a hut near the banks of the Moosejaw. She befriends a prospector, who in turn is kind to her. She mistakes his grat-itude for love. When he meets and Second Episode of the Broken Coin Today.

The second episode of the Broke Coin serial featuring Francis Ford and Grace Cunard will be shown in two ceels today and tomorrow. In this installment the real story begins and depicts Grace Cunard searching in the desert for the other half of the coin, where a big fight takes place among the natives. The episode is very ex-citing as well as most interesting. For the first time in this city Mina Cunard, a sister of Grace Cunard, will appear in this feature. Lester Templeton's Loveland Giris are making quite a hit here with their lively musical com-edy in which several novel effects are introduced. They will make a com-plete change of bill tomorrow. Many contestants have handed in their names for the Charlie Chaplin contest and the best eight will be picked for the contest on Friday night,

Political Speculations-Local People to Join In Baltic's Proposed Old Home Day.

Joseph Lefreniere who has been working in Jersey City, N. J., has re-turned to Plainfield. Nels Nelson recently employed in Plainfield as fireman at the mill was in town Monday calling on friends. Mr. Nelson is now working in Manchester, as a machinist.

Gorman who stepped out to let Coffey in last year is again out after the job. He will probably get on the ticket with Coffey and run for second selectman with the hope of outrunning Coffey. Coffey's claim to the job next year is backed by the good condition of the roads and a saving of almost $200 for the past ten months.

For the first time within the memory of any of the old timers the Demory of the old timers the Demory of any of the old timers the Demory of the old timers the Demorphism of the old timers the old tim ory of any of the old timers the Demoratic party is without registrar of voters Owing to the resignation of John L. Sullivan before his deputy Wm. Curren, had qualified, the party is left at the mercy of the republicans. Town committeeman Daniel Smith has appointed himself to the position and the party must wait until the next town meeting before one of its mem-bers can be elected. The liquor ques-tion will undoubtedly be a hot argu-ment before it is finally settled by the voters. It is a question whether the town will get license fees from local liquor dealers or whether Norwich, Jewett City and even Rhode Island

The Old Home Day celebration which is being planned in Baltic has aroused the enthusiasm of many local people who were former residents of Baltic. Residents of this town and of Moosup, Arctic, Natick and Quidnick have formed a committee to aid the Baltic people to make the day a success. The Plainfield baseball club will receive an invitation to participate in one of the three games that are to be played on that day. There are about 200 members of the village of Plainfield who were former residents of Baltic.

POETRY

WHITE CLOVER.

The distant hills the long day through Have fainted in a hase of blue; The sun has been a burning fire. The day has been a warm desire. But all desire is over; The lights are fading from the west, The night has brought a dreamy rest. The sudden singing of a bird, While here an evening wind has stirred A slope set thick with clover.

The fields have lost their lingering light.

The path is dusky through the night—
The clover is too sweet to lose.

Her fragrance with the gathering dews,
The skys are warm above her;
The cricket pipes his rong again,
The cows are waiting in the lane,
The shadows fall adown the hill.
And silent is the whip-poor-will,
But through the summer twilight still
You smell the milk-white clover.

FOR RENT—A tenement of seven rooms, 240 Laurel Hill Ave., bath, steam heat, electric light and gas. N. Eugene Smith.

To RENT—A small bungalow situated on the Thames river, ten minutes walk from Fort Point R. R. station; will not rent for less than two months; terms $7 per week. Telephone 1402.

The glory of the day has ceased,
The moon has risen in the east.
The distant hills, the meadows near
Are bathed in moonlight, soft and clear.
That veils the landscape over.
And born of rare and strange perfume
Pure as the clover's odorous bloom,
Dear hopes, that are but half-confessed,
Dim thoughts and longings fill the breast,
Till lost again in deeper rest
Among the blossomed clover.
